

How do you feel?

Use this chart to help children define how much they hurt. One represents the best they've ever felt, while ten represents the worst pain they've ever experienced.